Stanley Ming Woo, 73, of Savannah, GA, died peacefully on December 6, 2022, at Hospice of Savannah.

Stan was born on July 30, 1949, to Harvey and Alma Garvin Woo in Savannah, GA.

Stan graduated from Armstrong State College with a degree in Biology. He worked at the Skidaway Institute of Oceanography and as a research scientist at the USDA Agricultural Research Service's Stored Product Insects Research and Development Laboratory, both in Savannah, GA. Stan continued his career as the Quality Control Manager for Carson Products of Savannah (L'Oréal) until his retirement in 2003. After retirement, he enjoyed working in the archery department of the Bass Pro Shops in Savannah, GA.

A skilled outdoorsman and avid hobbyist, Stan was active in many groups. He held membership with the Savannah Ski and Adventure Club and served in a variety of leadership roles within the American Daylily Society, Georgia Daylily Society, and Savannah Daylily Society. After his retirement, Stan became a Master Gardener and took great joy in both growing and hybridizing daylilies. Stan was also an avid fisherman and hunter with one of his greatest loves being the thrill and challenge of bow hunting. He was a member of the Switzerland Bow Hunting Club in South Carolina. With all his many interests, Stan was generous in sharing his knowledge and loved teaching others through his experience.

Stan is survived by his wife and fellow adventurer of 40 years, Sheila Rahn Woo; two sisters: Angela Woo Sosdian (partner Bill Senseney) of Arlington, VA, and Linda Woo Dominy (Bill) of Atlanta, GA; nieces and nephews: Anna Sosdian of Costa Rica, Andrew Sosdian of Arlington, VA, Ellen Dominy of Atlanta, GA, and Meredith Loveland (Brad) of Charlotte, NC.

A service to celebrate Stan's life will be held January 7, 2023, at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Savannah, GA. Receiving friends will take place from 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church or the Savannah Botanical Gardens.

Sheila, my heartfelt condolences on your loss of Stan. I remember so many fun and interesting times talking and him sharing his love of the day lilies. May his Memory Be Everlasting.

- Cathy Berry, Savannah, Ga

Dear Sheila, I am sad to learn of Stanley's passing. I first learned of Stan's brilliance and happy spirit as my SHS '66 classmate. I miss those happier times and miss your enthusiastic contributions to learning during my BOE years. You and Stan make lives and our world a better and happier place! May God continue to bless you, and all the Woo family. Sending love, Sandy Traub

- Sandy Traub, Rincon, GA

Stan was one of the most knowledgeable gardeners I've ever met. His gorgeous daylily creations touched me deeply, as they always reminded me of my mother's love for that particular flower. I enjoyed many a peaceful afternoon on the shores of his and Sheila's island home, and I'll cherish memories of his kindness, convivial nature and creativity. Peace and comfort to all his family.

- Cheryl Clemens, Savannah, Georgia
